

ALASKA IMPACT
ALLIANCE

501 (c)3

The Alaska Impact Alliance is a working group of child welfare practitioners. We are Tribal, public, and private sector innovators and agency leaders building a statewide community-based prevention network that reduces the need for child protective services interventions.

SUPPORT SERVICES

The AIA will organize statewide prevention efforts by housing multiple networks and projects related to child welfare in Alaska.

MULTI-USER REFERRAL SYSTEM

Database with partners

FUNDING CONSULTATION

Contracted professionals
and member experts

ORGANIZATION & LEGAL ASSISTANCE

Contracted professionals
and member experts

TECHNOLOGY & SYSTEM ASSISTANCE

Contracted professionals
and member experts

RESEARCH, DATA & EVALUATION

Contracted professionals
and member experts

NETWORKING

Member gatherings, events,
education, communication,
website, social media

TRAINING

Training partners

NETWORKS & PROJECTS

The network members and project affiliates within the AIA will be able to utilize shared resources and supports for efficient and effective operations. The AIA will offer services and member benefits through existing partner organizations.

ALASKA FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER NETWORK

- School-Based FRCs
- Agency-Based FRCs

FAMILY SUPPORT DATABASE AND REFERRAL SYSTEM

- Multi-User
- Resource Navigation
- Potential Future Alternate-Response Option
- Peer-Support Connection
- Data Collection
- Standardized Family Assessment Tools
- Program Evaluation Tools

COMMUNITY PREVENTION PROJECTS

- Community Fund
- Community Assessments
- Innovation Grants
- Implementation Supports

EVIDENCE-BASED PRACTICE STATE INTERMEDIARY

- Track EBP Use
- Research & Evaluation
- Training Collaborations
- Promotion